From the Camp at Elvas, April 22. N. S.

THE Army is encamped in this Place, where it is thought we ſhall lye 'till the 24th Inſtant, before we advance towards the Enemy, who are at Badajos, 3 Leagues diſtant from us.

Vienna, April 27. N. S. An Expreſs is arrived here from Saltzburg, with an Account of the Death of the Archbiſhop of that Place. He is ſucceeded by Count Harrach, who was formerly Biſhop of Vienna, and has been about three years Coadjutor to the Archbiſhop whom he ſucceeds; that Prelate having been ſo long incapable of diſcharging his Paſtoral Function, by the Loſs of his Sight. Prince Maximilian of Lichtenſtein is likewiſe dead at his Country Seat of Cromaw in Moravia. The Emperor has thought fit to name Count Zinzendorf, Count Goes, and Monſieur Consbruck to act on his Imperial Majeſty's part, in caſe of an enſuing Congreſs. Thoſe Miniſters will ſet out for the Hague, as ſoon as it is known that the Propoſals for Peace are like to produce a formal Treaty. Prince Joſeph of Lobkowitz began his Journey ſome Days ago for Flanders, where he intends to ſerve the next Campaign.

Berne, May 1. N. S. Advices from Turin import, that the Prince de Carignan, who was thought to be on his Recovery, relapſed into a violent Fever, and died the twenty third of the laſt Month, in the 80th Year of his Age. This Prince is mightily regretted by the Court; he has left behind him two Sons and two Daughters, by his Conſort the Princeſs Catherine of Eſté. Letters from France ſay, that the Duke of Berwick arrived at Lyons on the 25th of the laſt Month, from whence he went the next Day to viſit the Poſts of Dauphiné and Provence. The ſame Letters add, that Marſhal Theſſé paſſed alſo through that City on the 24th in his Return from Italy, and in his way to Verſailles; and that there had likewiſe marched through Lyons two Battalions coming from Alſace, that were to be followed by 6 others, which are appointed to reinforce the Army of the Duke of Berwick.

Hamburgh, May 3. N. S. Count Schonborn returned to this Place on the laſt Day of April from Maſtricht. During his Abſence, the other Miniſters of the Imperial Commiſſion, having received Orders from their reſpective Courts, to comply with the preſent manner of Conference, came accordingly this Morning to an Apartment over the Exchange, and reaſſumed their Meetings. They are now employed in reviſing ſuch Matters as the Magiſtrates, and the College of 60, have put in Execution, purſuant to the Orders of the Commiſſion. Dr. Krumbholtz is to be heard by his Advocate before the Court of Juſtice on Monday next. The Duke Adminiſtrator of Holſtein, and his Dutcheſs, continue ſtill at Reinsbeck. They deſign both to ſet out for the Baths of Acken, within 14 Days. Letters from Dantzig inform us, that thoſe Magiſtrates are inquiring into the quantity of Corn the Merchants have in their preſent Stores, in order to prevent the Exportation of more than may be convenient for the Town to part with, and to take care that none be ſent into France. Theſe Letters confirm the Report of the Conjunction of the Muſcovites under Feldt-Marſhal Golitz, with the Crown-Army, and that they are reſolved to make Head againſt King Staniſlaus and General Craſſaw, whilſt a Body of 6000 Men ſhuts up the Swediſh Garriſons left at Poſen, and ſome other Places in Pruſſia. There is yet no Advice from Ukrania, except what comes from the Muſcovite Quarters.

Hanover, May 7. N. S. His Electoral Highneſs deſigns to go within few Days to Veyhauſen, which is a Seat in the Country of Cell. The Elector will ſtay there ſome Days, and go from thence to Dirmond. The Day of ſetting out towards the Upper Rhine, is not yet named; but the Seaſon is ſo far advanced, that we believe it will not be deferred much longer. The Prince Royal of Pruſſia left this Court on Saturday laſt, in order to be in Flanders at the opening of the Campaign. He was entertained here, during his Stay, with all poſſible Diſtinction and Reſpect.

Bruſſels, May 9. N. S. The Troops of the Allies are moving towards Deynſe, where they deſign to canton 'till the whole Army is come up. Letters from Mons ſay, that the Duke of Bavaria hath ſent the Count de Monaſterolle, and that his Brother, the Elector of Cologn, hath ſent the Baron de Simeoni, to negotiate their Affairs at the Hague. We hear from France, that the Marſhal de Theſſé arrived at Verſailles the 29th of the laſt Month; and the next Day the Chevalier de Beuil brought Advice from Spain, That on the 17th the Engliſh Squadron appeared before Alicant; and having for ſome time cannonaded the Town, General Stanhope endeavoured to land ſome Troops for the Relief of the Caſtle; but finding the Enemy ready to receive them, and the Attempt very hazardous, if not wholly impracticable, he demanded to capitulate for the Garriſon; this being granted, Hoſtages were exchanged, and the Capitulation, conſiſting of 14 Articles, was ſigned the ſame Evening. The Garriſon being made up of 600 Regular Troops, marched out the next Day with two pieces of Cannon, and all other Marks of Honour; and being received on Board, the Confederate Fleet ſailed forthwith for Barcelona. The Beſiegers are ordered to march for Tortoſa, to join the Army that is to be aſſembled on that ſide.

Hague, May 10. N. S. On the 6th Inſtant, in the Evening, the Marquis de Torcy arrived here from France, and had an Interview with the Penſioner that Evening. He was the next Day admitted to a ſecond Interview in the Preſence of thoſe Deputies who had been appointed to hear the Propoſals of Monſieur Rouillé concerning a Treaty of Peace; but the Character in which the Marquis came hither, was not underſtood by the Publick 'till the 8th, on which Day he made Viſits. The purpoſe of his Arrival is to be communicated this Day to the States of Holland, who are extraordinarily called together on that Occaſion. A Caper belonging to Dunkirk, of 28 Guns and 170 Men, was taken by a Privateer of Zeland, and brought into Scheveling on the 8th Inſtant.

Whitehall, May 4. Yeſterday his Grace the Duke of Marlborough ſet out at four of the Clock in the Morning for Margate, and ſailed from thence for Holland at eight this Morning.

Plimouth, May 1. Yeſterday was ſent in by a Guernſey Privateer, a Prize loaden with Salt from Rochelle, for Dieppe. This Day came in the Chriſtian of and from Gottenbourgh with Deals, &c. for a Market.

Portſmouth, May 3. On Sunday laſt her Majeſty's Ship the Angleſea ſailed from Spithead to the Downs. Yeſterday her Majeſty's Ship the Rocheſter arrived at Saint Hellens, with five Sail under Convoy from the Downs. This Morning her Majeſty's Ships the Portſmouth, Greenwich, Burlington, Rocheſter, Newport, Hector, Rye-Galley, Valeur and Saphir ſailed from St. Hellens with about 100 Sail of outward-bound Merchantmen for the Weſt-Indies, Streights and New-England.
